Nick is an attorney with Lind, Jensen, Sullivan & Peterson, P.A. where he represents a wide range of clients in Minnesota, Iowa, and North Dakota. He focuses his practice in the areas of general liability, professional liability, product liability, and construction litigation. Prior to joining the firm, Nick clerked for two civil defense law firms in Iowa and Minnesota where he focused his work on general liability, personal injury, and wrongful death. Nick graduated from Drake University Law School with Honors and earned a Certificate in Public Service. During law school, Nick was an Advanced Prosecution Intern for the Polk County Attorney's Office where he first and second chaired multiple, successful felony jury trials. Nick also gained valuable courtroom and jury trial experience interning at the Dallas County Attorney's Office where he managed the county's misdemeanor and traffic court docket. He was also a Note Editor for the Drake Journal of Agricultural Law, a National Finalist for the ABA Moot Court Arbitration team, and a member of the TYLA National mock trial team. During his undergrad studies at Luther College, Nick played NCAA Division III varsity baseball and was the president of a community service fraternity. Nick also founded and co-hosted a sports-radio talk show. Outside of his practice, Nick enjoys visiting his hometown of Des Moines, Iowa, hunting, fishing, traveling, and following his favorite professional sports teams.
