Nick's practice is dedicated towards representing a wide range of clients in Minnesota, Iowa, and North Dakota. He focuses his practice in the areas of professional liability, transportation liability, general liability, catastrophic personal injury, and wrongful death. Nick is passionate about his practice and motivated towards providing excellent client service, counsel, and representation through all stages of civil litigation. Nick has demonstrated his competitive nature and devotion to representing clients through pre-litigation investigations, discovery, depositions, motion practice, alternative dispute resolution, and trial work. He is dedicated towards providing exceptional representation to achieve the specific needs, goals, and outcomes of each client.

Prior to joining Lind, Jensen, Sullivan & Peterson, Nick worked for two civil defense law firms in Minnesota and Iowa, where he focused his work on transportation liability, personal injury, and wrongful death. Before focusing his practice on civil matters, Nick gained extensive trial and litigation experience when he interned for the Polk County and Dallas County Attorney's Offices. During his time as an intern, Nick first and second chaired numerous Class-A felony jury trials, conducted daily bench trials and motion hearings, and managed a county-wide misdemeanor and traffic court docket. For his efforts, Nick was awarded the 2018 Excellence In Prosecution Award from the Iowa Association of County Attorneys.

Nick graduated from Drake University Law School with Honors and a Certificate of Public Service. He was also a Note Editor for the Drake Journal of Agricultural Law, a National Finalist for the ABA Moot Court Arbitration team, and a regional semi-finalist for the TYLA National mock trial team. During his undergrad at Luther College, Nick played NCAA Division III varsity baseball and was the president of a community service fraternity. Nick also founded and co-hosted a sport-radio talk show. Outside of his practice, Nick enjoys spending visiting his hometown of Des Moines, Iowa, traveling with his wife, hunting, fishing, and following his favorite professional sports teams.
