PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Brian A. Wood is a shareholder with Lind, Jensen, Sullivan & Peterson, P.A. His primary areas of practice span commercial transportation, products liability, retailers' liability, personal injury, toxic torts, insurance law, and life, health, and disability law. He has substantial experience in all areas of practice and has represented numerous insurers and corporations.

He represents companies for claims related to employee conduct, including assaults, sexual abuse, and other actions bringing rise to negligent supervision claims. He is an active member of DRI and related committees, as well as the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel, where he is past chair of the premises liability committee.

Brian has participated and chaired many legal education programs in Minnesota. He previously served as an adjunct professor at William Mitchell College of Law. He was also selected as a Super Lawyer in Minnesota Law and Politics and Twin Cities Business magazines. Brian strictly follows his legal philosophy of "Good Solutions - Fast".
