PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Sean G. Kelly represents businesses and individuals in litigation across Minnesota, Wisconsin, and North Dakota. His practice involves defending clients in automobile and trucking accidents, personal injury, construction defect, property damage, premises liability, and wrongful death cases. He strives to provide clients with responsive, practical advice to resolve disputes effectively and cost-efficiently while positioning them to win at trial.

Prior to joining the firm, Sean served as a Judge Advocate in the United States Army, where he was a prosecutor and legal advisor to commanders in the 82nd Airborne Division, 10th Special Forces Group (Airborne), and 4th Infantry Division. He has deployed to Iraq and Europe and has supported domestic operations in support of civil authorities within the United States. [
