

Madison E. Larva

Associate

Direct 612-746-0175

Madison Larva is a versatile civil defense litigator. Her practice includes the representation of insurance carriers and corporate entities who are exposed to significant liability. She has extensive experience defending clients in challenging disputes including claims of negligence, gross negligence, construction defect, breach of contract, fraud, and labor & employment discrimination.

Client engagement is central to successful defense litigation, and Madison is committed to maintaining a high level of communications. She takes the time to truly involve the client, and incorporate their goals, concerns, values and feedback.

Madison is a Duluth native and received her B.S. from Saint Cloud State in 2015, and her J.D., from Mitchell Hamline School of Law in 2020.

Outside of the practice of law, you can find Madison near water, on a hike, or enjoying a book outside.
